

VISITS TO THE SCHOOLS/PROGRAMS

The County Board of Education encourages parents/guardians and interested members of the community to visit the schools/programs and view the educational program.

Visitations to County Office programs/classrooms shall adhere to local district regulations.

The County Board recognizes the staff time and commitment required by school/program visits and encourages the staff to accommodate as many requests for visits as possible.

Board members are encouraged to visit and observe programs operated by the County Office and arrangements for such visits shall be made through the County Superintendent or designee.
