

EMERGENCIES AND DISASTER PREPAREDNESS PLAN

It is recognized that pursuant to legal requirements the County Superintendent of Schools or designee shall develop and maintain a disaster preparedness plan that details provisions for handling all foreseeable emergencies and disasters, including earthquakes. This plan shall be reviewed and updated at least annually.

Legal Reference:

EDUCATION CODE

32000-32004 Uniform fire signals (with requirement that every school building with capacity of 50 or more students be provided with a fire warning system)

32040 Duty to equip school with first aid kit

32200 Liability of employees for civil damage for injury during fire or other drill (shall not be held personally liable unless negligence or willful act of employee is proven)

35295-35297 Earthquake emergency procedures

39834 Operating overloaded bus

40041.5 Mass care and welfare shelters

46390-46392 Emergency average daily attendance in case of disaster

CODE OF REGULATIONS, TITLE 5

550 Fire drill

560 Civil defense and disaster preparedness plans

GOVERNMENT CODE

3100 Public employees as disaster service workers