ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF ORGANIZATION

SP 2100.00

The County Superintendent shall organize the administrative staff in a manner that best enables the County Office of Education to deliver a quality program of instruction, as well as effective educational, business, and other administrative services.

Authority originates with the publicly elected County Superintendent. The County Superintendent may delegate authority and responsibility to the administrators and staff.

The County Superintendent may adjust staff responsibilities temporarily or permanently to accommodate the workload and/or individual capabilities.
